

Dr Farah Yassine
Assistant professor
Kuwait International Law School, Kuwait

Dr. Farah Yassine is a holder of a PhD in public law from the University of Grenoble- France with a specialization in public international law and European Law. In addition to her experience in the field of human rights advocacy and legal consultancy, she has worked as an instructor in the Lebanese University and the Lebanese International University teaching mainly Human Rights, Business Law and Arab-Islamic Civilization). And she is currently working at Kuwait International Law School as an Assistant-Professor in the International Law department teaching Public International Law, International Law of the sea and European Law.