

Dr. Asim Jusic

Assistant professor Kuwait International Law School, Kuwait

is an assistant professor of law at Kuwait International Law School. He holds the LL.B. from the University of Sarajevo, Master of Arts from University of Heidelberg, Master of Laws (LL.M.) and the Doctor of Juridical Science (SJD) degree from Central European University. His prior teaching experiences include teaching at graduate level at Central European University, University of Buckingham – Sarajevo School of Science and Technology joint program, and American University in Bosnia and Herzegovina. A licensed attorney at law, he also worked as a business and political consultant for a number of international and non-governmental organizations in the US, Germany and Hungary.